Brief Report:

Ehamar Bumagat is turning 4 this August and has 1 sibling, past 2 years they are living in their province which is in Antique but they need to be here in Manila because their life in Antique is very hard. Now they are living in their grand-parent's house and they divide it into 2, they share the rental 750 pesos per month, their water is bought outside from their neighbour and it costs P400 a month, the electricity is P600 a month. Her mother is a housewife and takes care of the family and only the father is working for them, as of now her father is a school bus driver earning P8,500 a month and all the expenses of the family comes from the father's income. And if vacation season, her father doesn't have school service and needs to have extra work to support the family, her father works as a mechanic repairing motorcycle and can work as a family driver.
