Brief Report:

John Mendoza grew up with his grandfather and grandmother. The parents of the child are separated and they have their own family. The father does not provide any financial support. The mother of the child has no work so the grandparents are the one who provide for his needs. The work of the grandmother is washing and ironing dress with P6500 monthly. The grand father is a regular construction worker with a salary of P12,000 a month. The mother of the child will only come and visit John because she is living in another city with another man.
