Brief Report:

The father of the child died from an accident 1 year ago in Bicol and they have to move to Manila since the mother's parent lives in Las Piñas. The grandparents gave them a small space for them to live and to start a new life. The mother can't work because she has to take care of the children. The oldest child is 18 years old and is still studying at CAA, a scholar with no tuition fees, the 2nd child is in high school, before she goes to school, she has to work half a day as a sales lady in a small store earning P400 a week. From the money she earns, she gets her pocket money and everything needed in school. The 3rd child is in elementary and the youngest is 10 months old. The mother pays their monthly bill like water supply and electricity. They also have a small sari-sari store income.
