Brief Report:

Rien Vincent is already 4 years old. His mother is only a housewife who does household chores. They are living in a house owned by his grandmother's sisters that lived in US. His grandmother is a care taker of the house and it is divided in a small room for rent. The sisters allowed the grandmother to stay in 1 of those rooms for free. His father is a kitchen staff and earned 12k monthly. The CR is used by all the renters including them. Then part of the kitchen area, the roof has a hole and they said that if there is rain it easily floods. So since they live free, they will be the one to initiate to repair the house.
