Brief Report:

Sofia Lauren is the youngest of all her siblings and all of them are studied in Oikos during their pre-school time. Now all are studying in a public school. The father is working as a construction worker and the mother as a housewife, whom is very supportive of her child, even at church and the responsibilities inside the school. They are not renting the house, but they only pay P1200 a year. After a year of paying the house will be owned by them.
