Brief Report:

The parents of Curt Jasper is separate for almost 3 years. The mother is the one who provide the needs for her child. There is no financial support from the father. So, now the mother was able to find a partner who accepted her situation and support them in their needs. That step father work as barangay tanod earning 5,800.00 every month and they have to pay for the house rent which is 1,000 and 300 for the water and 500 for the Meralco. That's why the mother of Curt decided to find work to support their needs, because if she only depends on the salary of her husband, it will not be enough for them. But her work is just (washing clothes earning 150-250 a day). Most of the time the salary is delayed, so can't avoid to borrowed money from other just to have food to eat in their plate.
