Brief Report:

Miah Angela is the only child of Mr./ Mrs. Arjona. The father only works for their family as a housekeeping for almost 4 yrs. In the agency. The mother stops for work because no one can look for their child. To help her husband she makes away to help and putting a small business-like making juices, hotcake etc. They are living in the house of Mia Angela's grandparents [house] free but the lot is not their own so there is possibility that when the owner want's them to pay for the lot they were oblige to pay it. Including the other bills, a month, like water bill cost 200.00 per month and the electric bill 1000.00, and they get all the expenses that are needs of the family by the income of the father. Miah Angela is a Sunday schooler child and the father is already a Christian, and when they heard about Oikos they are happy for the free scholarship and at same time Christian school the parents are very sure that their child is in the good hands.
